PETOSKEY

*In that state shaped like a mitten
On the little finger side,
Nestled in a peaceful valley,
Facing on the bay so wide,
Is a shining little city;
Place of beauty, health and fame.
Ah! I see you're getting curious
Would you like to know its name?*

*Land of million-dollar sunsets,
Sportsman's paradise and more,
The hay fever patient's haven,
Place the weary are looking for,
There the water's pure and sparkling,
Air is fresh; clear as a bell,
Hillsides are thickly wooded
Casting shade in nook and dell.
You may look the wide world over,
Not another like this city.
Is's a gem that can't be mined.*

*In that state shaped like a mitten,
On the little finger side,
Nestled in a peaceful Valley,
Facing on the bay so wide,
Is a shining little city
That is known from coast to coast
Our very own Petoskey
Is the place of which I boast;*
