BRUTUS TEAM OF 1920: The Brutus baseball nine posed for this photo some 50 years ago. Dark uniformed members were the substitutes for pitcher and catcher. Identified from the left, front row, are Clyde Grisby, Otto Kuebler, Zeke Griener, Lloyd Griener and Harry Hoar. Back row, Karl Kuebler (with ticket box), Adolph Buckhorn, Charlie Kuebler, Henry Cabinaw, Lawrence

Shaum, Leo Cabinaw, Lynn Wagley (manager), Henry Gregory (Brutus garage owner) and Joe Shaum. In the center is Henry Bechtel. Wagley owned and operated the L.E. Wagley Store, it was located on main street across from the old Purple Inn and both burned at the same time. The photo was furnished by Mrs. Stan Thompson of Brutus.
