ARE HAVING GLORIOUS TIMES AT THEIR FAIR.

The Knights of Columbus and their many friends are having a jolly time at their fair in the John Hobbins salesroom on Mitchell street. There is music all the evening, and nobody goes away empty-handed, but carries, groceries, fruit, aluminum ware, candy, and even live ducks. A Nash car will be given away Saturday night at 11 o'clock.

The fair committee consists of A. J. Foster, chairman; William Hanes; George Case, George Kerner, Mike Kopp and John Laurer. The car committee is composed of J. H. Behan, chairman; William Hartwick and Al Gibson. Mr. Behan, who is grand knight, is general chairman of committees.

Come to the K. of C.
Fair Tonight!

Fun, Oh Boy! We Had a Peck of It There
Last Night!

Music during the whole evening, and the crowds full of excitement over the various booths. Scarcely anyone goes away empty-handed—some have big baskets of Groceries, Fruit, Aluminum Ware, Candy, and some are fortunate enough to secure a Real Live Duck.

*Best of all is the Nash Car to be Given Away Saturday. You May Be the
