VETERANS BUY LEE GROCERY

Two Korean veterans shortly will take over the Lee Grocery at 919 ½ Emmet Street.

Tom Washburn and Dick Oelke, both discharged during the past year after service in Korea, have made arrangements to purchase and operate the store, Washburn said.

Oelke was discharged last August and has been employed by the Michigan Bell Telephone Company. He will continue with the telephone company. Washburn came out of the Army last November and has been employed at the Capital Airlines office in Pellston since early in the year. He plans to be at the store full time.
